

Please do not make any changes to the current "No Call List". Since the current laws (both federal and state) have gone into effect, I have not had to spend a large part of every evening answering the phone and repeatedly telling people that I am not interested in their products. If I want to purchase a product I will seek them out. Please do not weaken Wisconsin's strong laws in this regard. Thank you.